

Having worked extensively with James on the CEO search for REN Skincare, I can strongly recommend his services. He is highly adept at establishing the right candidate/client fit – paying equal attention to both professional and cultural dynamics. Not only do you have a real sense that he commits himself 100% to a search but also that he goes above and beyond to ensure that both parties are properly engaged throughout the process. Finally, it is also worth saying that, James is an absolute pleasure to work with and I would have no hesitation in recommending him.
